2003 Barbaresco Vigna Montersino- Score 89/100
Oct. 2006 Wine advocate # 167

Abrigo's 2003 Barbaresco Montersino, from a vineyard in Treiso, is one of the surprising wines of the vintage. Made in a big, powerful style, it opens with dark, brooding aromas of tar, licorice and earthiness that are followed by generous amounts of super-ripe dark fruit with notable intensity as well as personality. This masculine, backward Barbaresco will require at least a few years of patience. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2015.

2004 Barbaresco Vigna Montersino- Score 91/100
Oct. 2007

Abrigo's 2004 Barbaresco Vigna Montersino reveals a deep, powerful expression of scorched earth, tar, smoke and dark fruit on a large-scaled frame. It offers notable intensity and a generous, supple, if somewhat quirky, personality with excellent length and well-integrated tannins.
